

Annual report

For the BOS AGM 2010

Practitioner Group

A number of the committee have been very occupied with the diploma course this year and because of this together with the conflict of our usual dates with the conference in Sydney we did not arrange a study day this year. We hope to be more active as a committee in the next year.

A number of our members joined in with the NOW activities and we are looking forward to partaking again next year.

David McAleavey,

Secretary, Practitioner Group.
