

BOS on-line CPD

Are you receiving emails from the Society?

If you are not, the likelihood is that the Society does not have your current email address.

On line CPD through the BOS VLE site will be launched at the Conference and you will be provided with access and password information.

If you would like to take advantage of this new facility - as well as receiving other emails from the Society - you must let the BOS office have your email address.

Please email it to ann.wright@bos.org.uk as soon as possible.
